In the beginning

God created the Heavens and the Earth.
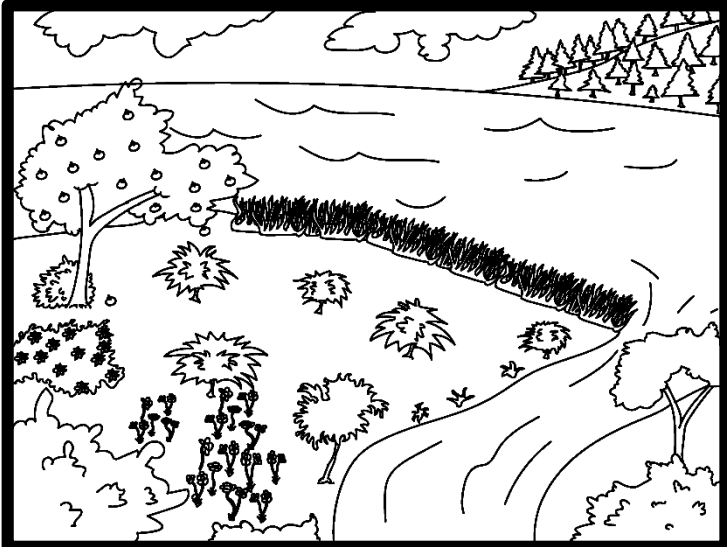

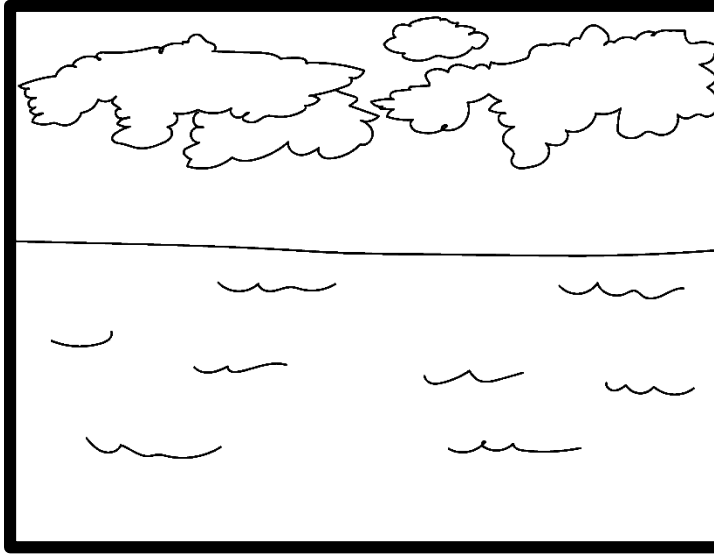

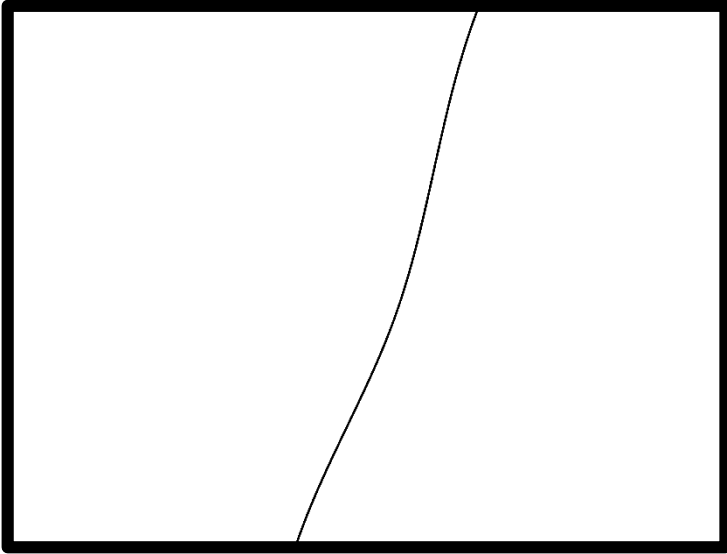

The First Day
God said, "Let there be light,"

The Second Day

God said, "Let there be a dome to separate the water above it from the water below it."
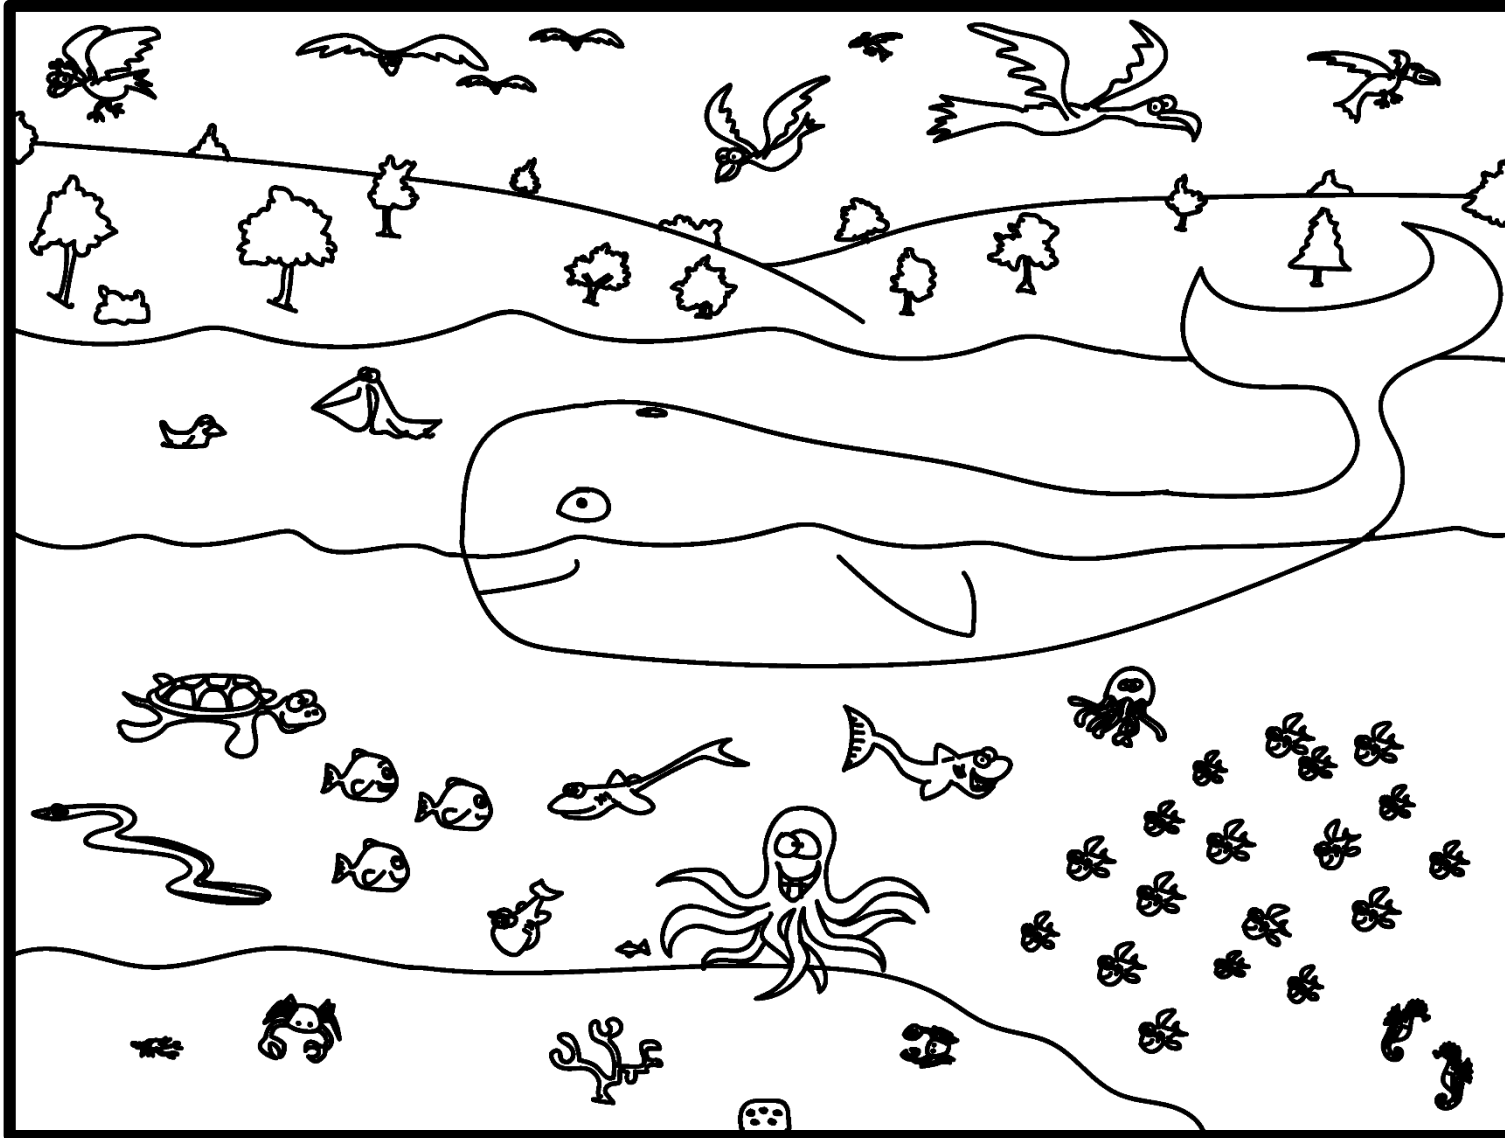

The Third Day

God said, "Let the water under the sky come together in one place, so there will be dry ground."

The Fourth Day

God said, 'Let there be lights in the sky to separate the day from night and to show the time for seasons, special days, and years. Let them shine on the earth."

Creation Story

The Sixth Day

God said, "Let the earth produce life to all kinds of tame animals, wild animals, and reptiles." And that's what happened. God made every one of them. Then he looked at what he had done, and it was good.

Then God said, "Let us make humans in our image. They will rule over the fish, the birds and all other living creatures. So God created humans in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male (Adam) and female (Eve) he created them.

Creation Story
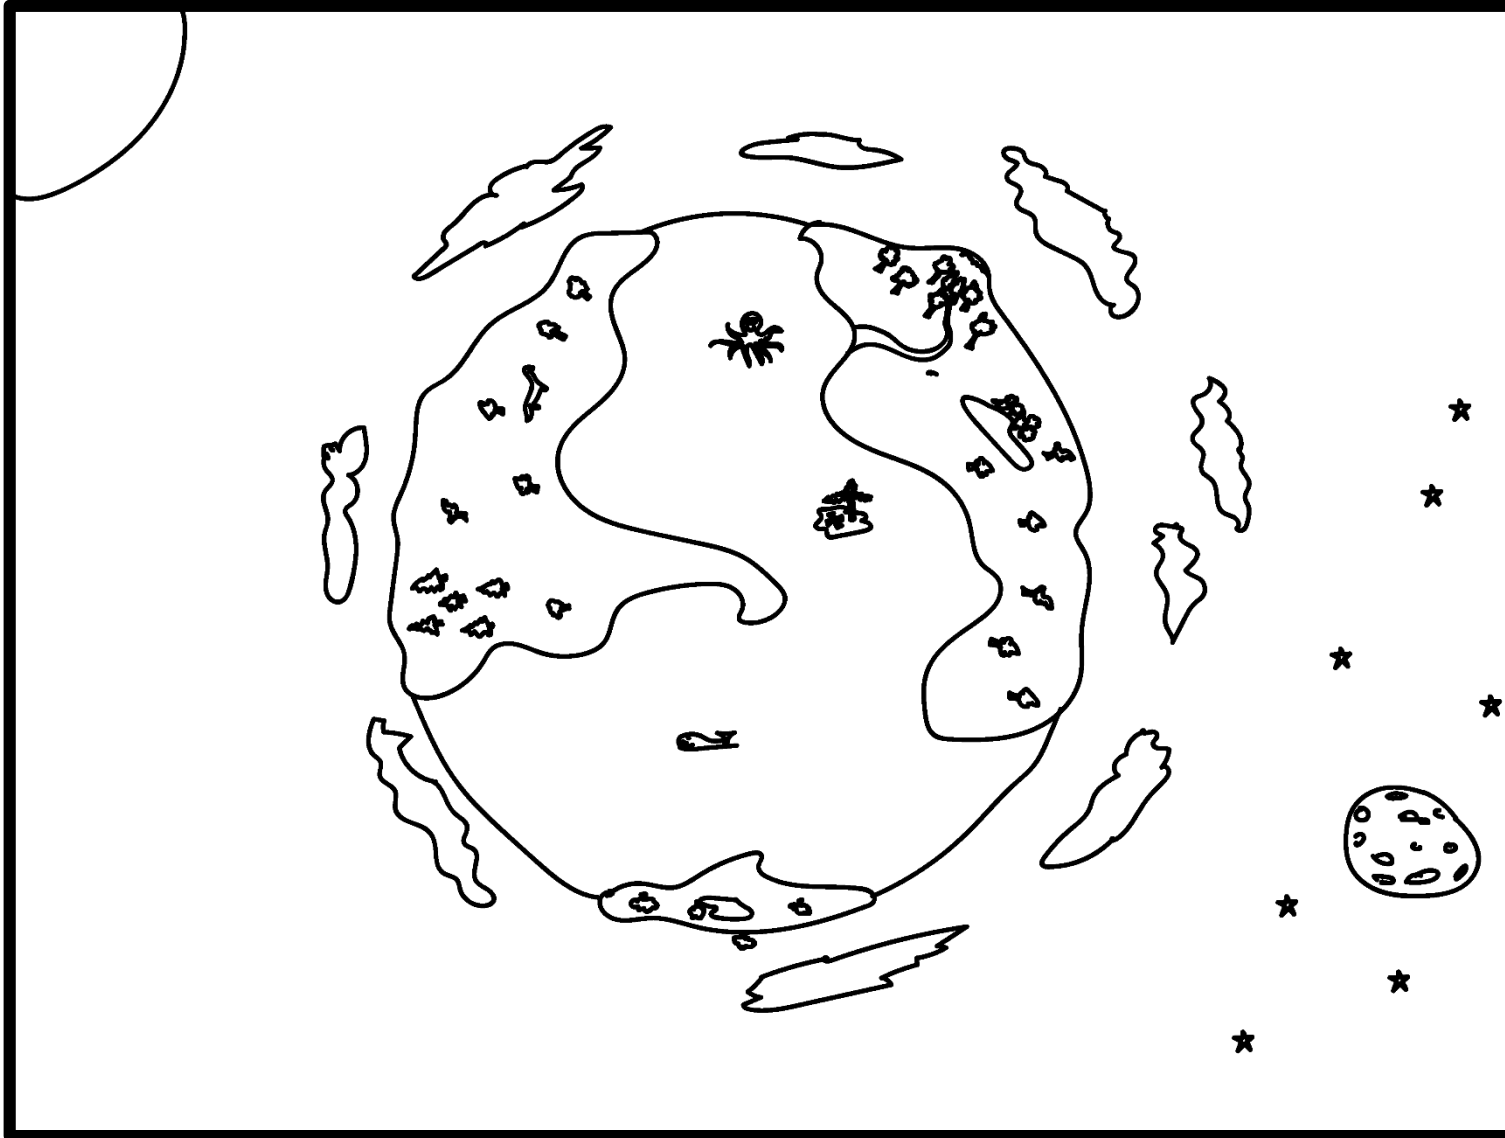

The Seventh Day

By the seventh day God had finished his work, and so he rested from all his work.

God blessed the seventh day and made it holy because on that day he rested from all the work of creating.
